Information for the Teacher

The information requested below helps the retreat teacher and BMIMC staff understand your background and difficulties you might encounter during your retreat. The information provided is confidential, and this form will be destroyed at the end of your retreat.

What experience do you have of vipassana (Insight) meditation in the Mahasi tradition, or broader Buddhist traditions? Who are/were your teachers?

Describe any present circumstances that might place your meditation practice under additional stress (e.g., recent loss of a loved one, job loss, substance abuse, physical or psychological problems).

Have you been diagnosed with a psychological or physical condition or illness? If so, please describe the diagnosis, treatment and dates.

Are you taking prescription drugs of any kind. If so, please give details.

Are you currently seeing a psychiatrist, psychologist, psychotherapist or counsellor?

If so, do you give BMIMC permission to contact your therapist in an emergency?
